Niceville UMC Missions Trip
April 14-22, 2012

Deadline: Wednesday, February 8

Purpose of the Trip

The Niceville UMC Mission team will work alongside Haitian workers to build another house in Haiti. Our desire is to provide long-term relief for Haitian families who are still homeless due to the January 2010 earthquake.

Dates

April 14-22, 2012

Cost

$1,200 (Covers flight out of Pensacola, and food and lodging in Haiti).

Who Can Participate?

Men who are at least 19 years old

Skills Required

Every team member should at least have basic construction skills and be in good physical condition. Priority will be given to those who have higher levels of construction experience or have a specialty such as block laying, electrical, plumbing, etc.

Number of Participants

Trip is limited to a maximum of 8 people. If more than 8 applications are received, preference will be given to those having the highest level of needed construction skills and to those who could possibly help lead another team later on.

Accommodations

The team will be staying at the OMS Villa Ormiso guest house that is 35-40 minutes southwest of Port Au Prince. This is a secure, walled complex, with very comfortable accommodations and a swimming pool.

Recommended Immunizations

Tetanus/Diphtheria
Hepatitis A
Typhoid
An anti-malaria script (like Chloroquine)

How to Reserve a Spot on the Team

Step 1:

Fill out this registration form (at right) and turn it in to Zena Jenkins or Greg McKinnon in the church office along with a $300 payment toward the trip and a copy of the front page of your passport. (If you do not already have a passport, you should start that process immediately.) Remaining amounts are due: $300 by Feb. 24; $300 by March 23; $300 by April 11.

Step 2:

Download, complete, and submit the One Mission Society "Men For Missions" application form which can be found at nicevilleumc.org/missions (under the "Opportunities" link). Simply bring the form to the church office or mail to: Niceville UMC, 214 Partin Dr. S., Niceville, FL 32578.
